

ONE KIDNEY GONE

But Cured After Doctors Said There Was No Hope.

Sylvanus O. Verrill, Milford, Me., says: "Five years ago a bad injury paralyzed me in Missouri and affected my kidneys. My back hurt me terribly, and the urine was badly disordered. Doctors said my right kidney was practically dead. They said I could never walk again. I read of Don's Kidney Pills and began using them. One box made me stronger and freer from pain. I kept on using them and in three months was able to get out on crutches, and the kidneys were acting better. I improved rapidly, discarded the crutches and to the wonder of my friends was soon completely cured."

USED TO IT.

Old Gent—Are you not ashamed to stand there listening to such awful language?
The Boy—Oh course I ain't. I'm a golf caddy.

NO SKIN LEFT ON BODY.

For Six Months Baby Was Expected to Die with Eczema—Now Well—Doctor Said to Use Cuticura.

"Six months after birth my little girl broke out with eczema and I had two doctors in attendance. There was not a particle of skin left on her body, the blood oozed out just anywhere, and we had to wrap her in silk and carry her on a pillow for ten weeks. She was the most terrible sight I ever saw, and for six months I looked for her to die. I used every known remedy to alleviate her suffering, for it was terrible to witness. Dr. C. gave her up. Dr. B. recommended the Cuticura Remedies. She will soon be three years old and has never had a sign of the dread trouble since. We used about eight cakes of Cuticura Soap and three boxes of Cuticura Ointment. James J. Smith, Durm, Va., Oct. 14 and 22, 1906."

Reached His Limit.

Little Henry had been very naughty and was shut up in a closet until he should express proper penitence for his misdeeds. Near by sat his mother, ready to extend pardon to the small offender at the first sign of sorrow. At last a faint sigh caught her ear. Creeping silently to the door, she discovered the child seated on the floor in a disconsolate attitude. "Poor mite," he muttered, with another sigh. "Why can't I get out? I've done so much for you!"—Delineator.

Better Than Refrigerator.

It is well known that food can be preserved without undergoing decomposition for a much longer period in a container, from which the air has been nearly exhausted, than in the customary refrigerator. In a nearly absolute vacuum milk, fish and meat have been preserved for months unchanged without further expense than that of withdrawing the air originally present in the receptacle.

They Don't Speak Now.

"You love long rambles in the country," asked the girl in the white sweater.
"Yes, indeed," responded the young man in the green hat with the purple band and buckled shoes. "When I go out in the country all nature seems to smile."

Money Expended on Schools.

Last year New York city spent $3,000,000 on its public schools; Chicago, $2,000,000; Boston more than $10,000,000; Philadelphia a little more than $6,000,000. Though Philadelphia is the third city in population in the United States, it stood thirty-fourth in per capita expenditure on schools.

Remember what you possess in the world will be found at the day of your death to belong to some one else, but what you are will be yours forever.—Henry Van Dyke.

NEW LIFE

Found in Change to Right Food.

After one suffers from acid dyspepsia, sour stomach, for months and then finds the remedy is in getting the right kind of food it is something to speak out about.

A N. Y. lady and her young son had such an experience and she wants others to know how to get relief. She writes:

"For about fifteen months my little boy and myself had suffered with sour stomach. We were unable to retain much of anything we ate.
"After suffering in this way for so long I decided to consult a specialist in stomach diseases. Instead of prescribing drugs, he put us both on Grape-Nuts and we began to improve immediately.

"It was the key to a new life. I found we had been eating too much heavy food which we could not digest. In a few weeks after commencing Grape-Nuts I was able to do my housework. I wake in the morning with a clear head and feel rested and have no sour stomach. My boy sleeps well and wakes with a laugh.
"We have regained our lost weight and continue to eat Grape-Nuts for both the morning and evening meals. We are well and happy and owe it to Grape-Nuts. "There's a Reason."

OFFICIAL VOTE OF MISSOURI

The complete vote on the minor state officials in Missouri has been counted, but it will not become official until the count by the legislature is made.
For President—Taft (Rep.), 346,915; Bryan (Dem.), 345,889; Debs (Soc.), 15,398; Chaffin (Pro.), 4,222; Watson (Pro.), 1,165; Hagen (Ind.), 397; Preston (Soc. Lab.), 867.
For Governor—Hadley (Rep.), 355,932; Cowherd (Dem.), 340,053. Hadley's plurality, 15,879.

Of the eight constitutional amendments submitted to the voters of Missouri, only two carried—that allowing the voting of a 25-cent tax for road purposes, and that providing for the Initiative and Referendum.
The road amendment carried by 19,720 majority, and the Initiative and Referendum by 30,942.

The final count and recount of the election figures by the secretary of state gives the lieutenant-governorship to Jacob F. Gmelch, Republican, by a plurality of 30. William R. Painter, Democrat, claims that corrected returns will give him the office by a plurality of 35. Painter probably will renew the contest before the legislature.

Hindu Fakings.

Some of the trance-like conditions into which individuals fall and lie for days and weeks have been studied and have been found to be frauds. The subjects are surreptitiously supplied with food and drink by their attendants or family. The same is true of the alleged power possessed by Hindu fakirs and ascetics of all ages, of going into states of trance in which they will allow themselves to be buried alive and dug up again and revived after several months have elapsed. In one instance on record an individual of this class allowed himself to be buried alive and his grave watched by a guard of English soldiers, and was dug up at the end of the time exceedingly dead. In another, the English officer in charge became alarmed on the third day and had the fakir "resurrected" when he was found still alive. A freed or bamboo at one corner of the grave to supply air would explain all these cases. The whole subject is involved in such an atmosphere of mystery and "fakery" that it is impossible to attach serious weight to the claims made.—American Magazine.

Mighty Bluff.

A mighty bluff old world at times. When friends desert us here, And yet above the darkness shines A ray of hope and cheer. There's always someone with a song To cheer us on our way. And light the path that leads us on Unto the perfect day.—Los Angeles Express.

New York city has the largest savings bank in the world, with more than 150,000 depositors and deposits amounting to more than $100,000,000. Liberty of the press was granted recently by the Turkish government, and in all probability the restrictions against books will be abolished.

Arbitration.

He was a man of peace, and he came upon two youths in a back street fighting. Accordingly he pushed through the crowd and persuaded the combatants to desist.
"Let me beg of you, my good fellows," earnestly besought the peacemaker, "to settle your dispute by arbitration. Each of you choose half a dozen friends to arbitrate."

"Hurrah!" yelled the crowd. "Do as the gentlemen say, boys."
Having seen the 12 arbitrators selected to the satisfaction of both sides, the man of peace went on his way rejoicing in the thought of having once again prevailed upon brute force to yield to peaceful argument.

Half an hour later he returned that way and was horrified to find the whole street fighting, while in the distance police whistles could be heard blowing and police rushing to the spot from all quarters.
"Good gracious! What is the matter now?" asked the peacemaker of an onlooker.
"Shure, sor," was the reply, "the arbitrators are at work."—Philadelphia Ledger.
